ABOUT FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

We are a church committed to "More People, More Like Christ." We see this as a personal challenge to follow Christ ever more closely, to extend our love and care to one other, and to tell those who will listen all about Him.

God's love compels us outward, starting the moment we trust in Jesus for our salvation. It is our wish that our friends whom we know and those we are yet to meet who are in need of hope will find that hope in Christ.

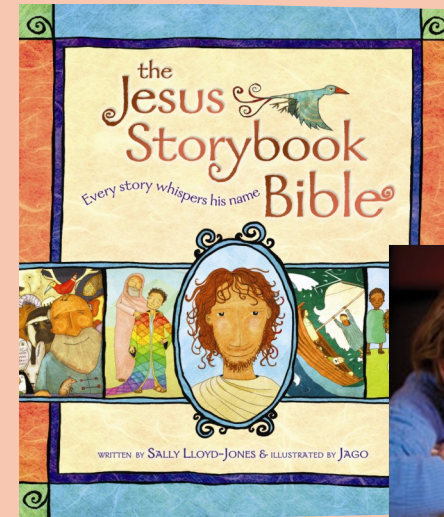

We are also big fans of God's "Never Stopping, Never Giving Up, Unbreaking, Always and Forever Love."

For more information about First Presbyterian Church North Shore and our ministries, please visit www.fpcnorthshore.com.

We are easily located on Route 1A, just over the Hamilton/Ipswich line.

Telling the Greatest Story...

OUR SPEAKER: SALLY LLOYD-JONES

Sally Lloyd-Jones is a British-born children's book writer who moved to the States in 1989 "just for a year". She's still here.

Born in Kampala, Uganda, raised in East, and West Africa and at a boarding school in the New Forest, the first book she ever remembers reading all the way through was The Complete Nonsense by Edward Lear. Things have never been the same since.

She worked in children's book publishing for several years before leaving in 2000 to write full-time. She has written many books for children including the critically acclaimed New York Times Bestseller How To Be A Baby... By Me, The Big Sister, one of only six children's titles selected by The New York Times as Notable for 2007; and also the book parents and children, pastors as well as theologians are talking about, and Christianity Today's children's Bible Storybook of choice, The Jesus Storybook Bible—Every Story Whispers His Name. Sally says, "I wrote this book so children could know that God loves them--with a Never Stopping, Never Giving Up, Unbreaking, Always and Forever Love."

She lives in Manhattan and likes to divide her time between the front half of her apartment and the back.

Other book titles by Sally Lloyd-Jones can be found at her website: www.sallylloyd-jones.com.

THE JESUS STORYBOOK BIBLE...

tells the Story beneath all the stories in the Bible. From Noah to Moses to the great King David, every story points to a Child, every story whispers his name...

Beautifully illustrated by the award-winning artist, Jago, The Jesus Storybook Bible invites children to discover for themselves the one who is at the center of God's great story of Salvation—and at the center of their story, too.
